Adams County Junior Fair
Outstanding Beginner Equine Exhibitor, 18 & Under

• The Adams County Junior Fair Outstanding Beginner Equine Exhibitor Award (18 & Under) is limited to members in their first or second year with a live equine who have never shown in a three-gaited or non-beginner easy-gaited class at an Adams County PAS or Junior Fair horse show.

• To be eligible for the Adams County Junior Fair Outstanding Beginner Equine Exhibitor Award (18 & Under), exhibitors must participate in the Skillathon, Walk Trot Showmanship or Beginner Easy Gaited Showmanship, Walk Trot Horsemanship or Beginner Easy Gaited Equitation, and Trail in Hand. Equine must be shown in the same style tack in Showmanship and Horsemanship or Equitation.

• The following will be used in OEE calculations:
  1. Skillathon Placing
  2. Showmanship Placing
  3. Walk Trot Horsemanship or Easy Gaited Equitation Placing
  4. Trail in Hand Placing (of beginner participants)

• If a tie for this award occurs, the following procedures will be used to break ties:
  1. Skillathon Score
  2. Total Skillathon Score (including tie breaker)
  3. Skillathon Station #1 Score
  4. Skillathon Station #2 Score
  5. Skillathon Station #3 Score
  6. Skillathon Station #4 Score
  7. Interview by one or more 4-H Equine Representatives

• Award presentation is at the Awards Round-Up on Friday evening of the Adams County Fair.

• A member is not eligible to win the Outstanding Beginner Equine Exhibitor award in consecutive years.
