You must NOT:

1. Provide any false information or impersonate others.
2. Create another account without permission if Facebook disables your account.
3. Use your 4-H page or group for your own commercial gain or for communications or activities that are purely personal in nature.
4. Share your password or do anything to jeopardize the security of your account.
5. Post content or take action that infringes or violates someone else's rights.
6. Post or knowingly permit the posting of content or any other use of your 4-H account to cause harm, embarrassment, defamation, insult, or injury to any person or entity. This does not prohibit frank discussions, criticism, or opinion. The following content and online activity is strictly prohibited: lewd or indecent conduct, threat of physical harm, stalking, forgery, intentional disruption of university or county activities, advocating or causing the damage or destruction of university or county property, illegal discrimination, harassment (including sexual harassment), or any intentionally malicious, defamatory, degrading, or hateful material.
7. Post content or take action that violates the law.
8. Post identification documents or sensitive or confidential financial, medical, educational, or other personal information of any person without that person's express, prior consent.
9. Tag users or send e-mail invitations to non-users without their consent.

You MUST:

1. Have a signed photo release form on file for anyone in a posted photograph.
2. Have a written policy on how to deal with youth who post inappropriate material on the 4-H page.
3. Follow the established national and state guidelines when using the 4-H emblem and other logos.
