Entries are due in the Extension office by June 1

1. The Junior Fair Baking Contest is open to current members of any Junior Fair organization or club that have completed a food and nutrition or related project.
2. Each organization or club may have one representative in each category.
3. Each club or organization may conduct a baking contest or judging to select participants.
4. Participants may only be registered in one category and may represent only one Junior Fair organization or club.
5. Each organization or club must submit entries in Qualtrics by June 1st.
6. Each participant will: a) Bring the baked item they have prepared themselves according to the recipe provided by the Junior Fair Board. b) Be required to take a written food preparation and nutrition test when entering the baked item. c) Submit their baked item in a sealed container. NO EXCEPTIONS or you will not be allowed to register.
7. All baked goods must be registered between 11:00-11:30 a.m. Judging will begin at 11:30 a.m. in the Senior Fair Administration Building.
8. Scoring will be as follows: a) Quality of baked item - 60%. b) Nutrition test - 40%.
9. If a participant earns less than 50% on the written food preparation and nutrition test, the baked good will not be eligible for placing or for the sale. Any participant who has difficulty reading should notify the contest chair(s) at time of registration so assistance can be provided.
10. Classes will be divided into Junior (8-12 years of age) and Senior (13 years of age and older). All ages as of January 1st of the current year.
11. Junior categories are: Quick Bread, Cookies, and Basic Cake
12. Senior categories are: Yeast Bread, Pie, and Specialty Cake
13. Awards will be presented at 2 p.m. in the Senior Fair Administration Building.
14. The awards given will be: Grand Champion - Rosette, Reserve Champion - Rosette, 3rd through 5th places - Rosettes. Each participant will receive a participation ribbon.
15. Grand and Reserve Champion must sell in the Small Animal and Baked Goods Sale. The baker must be present to sell and follow the Junior Fair Dress Code. NOTE: Grand and Reserve Champion winners will not be eligible to sell any additional units in any Jr Fair Sale unless those units were also designated as qualifying champions in their respective shows.
16. If, for some reason, the Grand or Reserve Champion is disqualified, no replacement will be selected from that division for the sale.
17. Entries not placing must be picked up by 2:30 p.m. on Friday.
